

Kindergarten Education Scheme
School-based Learning Activity of Chinese Culture
Display Form

Tin Shui Wai Alliance Kindergarten

Name of School

2023-2024

School Year

K1-K3

Grade Level

Name of Activity

Parent-Child School Lunar New Year Fair

Objective(s)

- Learn about the history and origins of Chinese/Lunar new year
- Participate in booths showcasing different elements of Chinese New Year celebrations
- Experience Chinese New Year culture through different activities
- Learn how to make the traditional Chinese “Coconut Candy Wrap” snack

Brief Descriptions:

There are a total of 9 different booths, each on could show a different element of the Lunar New Year celebrations: a windmill booth, candy picking corner, a candy and coconut wrap making booth, a rainbow coin throwing game, a stall to try on traditional costume, making herbal sachets, traditional sports games, and dragon dance handicrafts. Through the Chinese New Year fair parent-child activities, children learnt about traditional Chinese culture, snacks and toys passed through the generations. Children were able to experience the lively atmosphere and age-old traditions of a Lunar New Year celebration. Made the candy and coconut wrap that incorporated the traditional handicraft., showed the creativity and ingenuity of the Chinese nation. In the ancient sports, traditional folk games reflected the features of ancient Chinese culture.

Record of Activity (E.g. Children's Work / Photos / Videos of the activity)

Windmill booth

Candy picking corner

Candy and coconut wrap making booth

Rainbow coin throwing game

Traditional costume stall

Herbal sachets

Traditional sports games

Dragon dance handicrafts

